

Kental Makes It Easy

Le circuit classique

Téhéran-Bandar-e Abbas-Qeshm-Kish-Téhéran (9 Days / 8 Nights)(Adventure)

The islands of Iran often gather in the south and near the Persian Gulf. There are about 30 islands near the Persian Gulf. These islands can be divided into two categories: residential and non-residential islands. Qeshm Island is one of the islands in Hormozgan Province, which is the largest island in Iran and the Persian Gulf, near the Strait of Hormuz. You can discover natural attractions such as mangrove forests, canyons, Chahkouh gorges, Persian Gulf blue dolphins, Star Valley, Naz Islands, and the salt cave. Kish Island is a coral island. It is home to Iran's first free trade port.

more info: KENTALTRAVEL.COM

Day 1 :

Arrivée à Téhéran

Arrival at Tehran airport, greeted by your guide, and transfer to the hotel.

Day 2 :

Bandar-e Abbas

Visit the city of Tehran, a metropolis and the capital of modern Iran. Explore the Golestan Palace complex and the Grand Bazaar. Visit the main museums such as the Archaeological Museum, which is the first museum in Iran, the Glass and Ceramic Museum with its extraordinary collection of glass and pottery. The Jewelry Museum and the Carpet Museum can be visited if they are open on that day. Flight to Bandar-e Abbas. Overnight in Bandar-e Abbas.

Day 3 :

Gheshm

The morning is dedicated to visiting Bandar-e Abbas, a strategic port controlling the Strait of Hormuz and the entrance to the Persian Gulf. Visit the Kolah Farangi mansion, the Indian temple, and the Bandar Abbas Museum. Departure by boat to Hormuz Island. After visiting this island, depart to Qeshm Island by boat.

Day 5:

Gheshm

The day is dedicated to further exploring the island: Harra Forest, located just behind the northern wing of Qeshm, is a mangrove biosphere reserve. Bandar Laft, Lenj, Namakdan Cave, one of the longest caves in the world. Located in the southwestern part of the island, the cave is formed by the accumulation of seawater in faults. Tchahkooh, the Portuguese fortress. This fortress was built by the Portuguese in the 16th century when they seized Qeshm as part of a strategic effort to maintain control of the Strait of Hormuz.

Day 4 :

Gheshm

Discover the Barke Khalaf village, Star Valley composed of marl and sandstone, Naz Island located on the south coast of Qeshm, and the Khorbas cave where the caves are connected by a series of tunnels. Overnight in Qeshm.

Day 6:

Kish

Hengam Island, located south of Qeshm, is renowned for its dolphins. There is also a variety of tropical fish and stingrays in the natural "aquarium" of the Persian Gulf. Continue to Kish Island by boat. Overnight in Kish.

Day 7:

Kish

Kish Island, a free zone in the Persian Gulf, located about 300 kilometers from the port of Bandar Abbas, is one of the major tourist destinations in southern Iran. Visit the palm groves, squares, well-designed waterfronts, the Bird Park, and the unusually designed East Aquarium.

Day 8:

Téhéran

The morning is dedicated to further exploring the island: pearl culture centers, the Greek ship, recreational complexes of the Recreational Pier and the Green Tree, as well as traditional bazaars and modern shopping centers. In the afternoon, take the return flight to Tehran.

Day 9:

Téhéran

Transfer to Tehran airport for the return flight.

